Litigation and Regulatory Law

Anna Edmondson joined Robbins Government Relations in June 2021, bringing six years of legislative experience at the state and local level.

Prior to joining RGR, she served the Georgia General Assembly in various bipartisan capacities, including the office of Senator John Albers, the Senate State and Local Governmental Operations Committee, the Secretary of the Senate and the Senate Research Office. Anna also has extensive experience lobbying for cities and advising city councils on Georgia's local legislative process and state policy movements.

Anna holds a B.A. in Political Science from Kennesaw State University where she received the Outstanding Graduate award for her work at the Capitol. She earned her J.D. from Georgia State University College of Law in 2020. While in law school she focused her studies on environmental policy, and state and local government law which awarded her a Certificate in Environmental & Land Use Law. She was also a member of the Urban Fellows Program that studied environmental issues, urban growth and city planning. In 2020, she was recognized as a "Rising Star" in Georgia politics by JAMES Magazine.
