

Firm Obtains Jury Verdict in Client's Favor in Business Partnership Dispute

Our firm represented a client in a dispute with her business partner wherein the partner, in bad faith, refused to pay our client her compensation and interest in the business due to her as a result of the parties' agreements and generated by our client's successful efforts to make the business profitable. A team of our attorneys tried our client's claim to a successful jury verdict, resulting in a judgment and six figure damages award in our client's favor.

For more information, please contact Richard Robbins or Heather Sharp.